SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

FIFTH EDITION OF THE INDIAN WORD CODE FOR FOREIGN STATE TELEGRAMS.

To be brought into use on and after, but not before, Monday the 1st of April 1912.

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION.

1. It has been found convenient in compiling this Supplement to divide it into two Parts, each alphabetically arranged, namely, "Part I, Phrase-Code," and "Part II, Code-Phrase," the former for use in encoding telegrams, the latter for use in decoding them (or translating them out of code into plain language).

2. All the code words contained in the Supplement begin either with X or Z, while the initial letters of the code words in the Code itself run from A to V; it will, therefore, be at once apparent to the decoder of a telegram whether a particular code word is to be found in the Code or in the Supplement.

3. All the code words contained in the Supplement are incorporated in the Terminational List which is printed at the end of the fifth edition of the Indian Word Code for Foreign State Telegrams.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
January 1912.

ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESSES.

REGISTERED IN LONDON.

Xafariz - Educational Adviser to Indian Students, 21, Cromwell Road, London, S.W.

REGISTERED IN INDIA.

Note.—When it is required to ascertain the telegraphic address of a particular official in India whose title does not appear in the fifth edition of the Word Code, the code word representing that official should be looked up in the body of the Supplement. The subjoined list should then be consulted to ascertain whether the code word in question has been registered as a telegraphic address.

No code word contained in the Code or Supplement, other than those included in the lists of registered telegraphic addresses, may be used as a telegraphic address.

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

FIFTH EDITION OF THE INDIAN WORD CODE FOR FOREIGN STATE TELEGRAMS.

To be brought into use on and after, but not before, Monday the 1st of April 1912.

CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION.

1. It has been found convenient in compiling this Supplement to divide it into two Parts, each alphabetically arranged, namely, "Part I, Phrase-Code," and "Part II, Code-Phrase," the former for use in encoding telegrams, the latter for use in decoding them (or translating them out of code into plain language).

2. All the code words contained in the Supplement begin either with X or Z, while the initial letters of the code words in the Code itself run from A to V; it will, therefore, be at once apparent to the decoder of a telegram whether a particular code word is to be found in the Code or in the Supplement.

3. All the code words contained in the Supplement are incorporated in the Terminational List which is printed at the end of the fifth edition of the Indian Word Code for Foreign State Telegrams.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
January 1912.

ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESSES.

REGISTERED IN LONDON.

Xafariz - Educational Adviser to Indian Students, 21, Cromwell Road, London, S.W.

REGISTERED IN INDIA.

Note.—When it is required to ascertain the telegraphic address of a particular official in India whose title does not appear in the fifth edition of the Word Code, the code word representing that official should be looked up in the body of the Supplement. The subjoined list should then be consulted to ascertain whether the code word in question has been registered as a telegraphic address.

No code word contained in the Code or Supplement, other than those included in the lists of registered telegraphic addresses, may be used as a telegraphic address.
